Theme
Famous Firsts

We've had many firsts and famous they seem,
And that is why "Famous Firsts" is our theme.

Our Senior Class will be famous when we say good-by,
As the first to spend a year in the new Westboro High.

Here's something that we have managed to do:
We now have SCHOOL rings, so different and new.

We will remember the first Prom in our new gym,
An event which in our eyes will never grow dim.

The motorcade after the Prom was something new,
A tradition which we hope others will continue.

An event which we will not forget very soon
Was our Senior Dance and its theme, "Harvest Moon."

Our Senior Play will be remembered for many an age
As the first and the finest on the new high school stage.

This year basketball, A most thrilling sport,
Will have its premiere on our brand new court.

When you have put this yearbook away,
We hope these firsts in your mem'ry will stay.

Dedication

We, the class of 1959, dedicate our yearbook, THE COTTON GIN, to Mrs. Warren Burnham for:

Her personal interest in all our activities,

Her warmth and understanding,

Her keen sense of humor,

Her endless patience when we failed to understand,

And her talent for making mathematics come to life.
